G 16a

Hi my name is J

I am going to tell you when I arrived early at school. And when I found this huge backpack in the hallway. It was as tall as the ceiling.

One day I arrived at school early and I went down the hallway to go to my class and I found this huge backpack in the hallway and it was as tall as the ceiling. I just stared at the backpack for a few minutes. And then I went to the backpack and I open it to see what was in the backpack and there was a tall ghost in the backpack. And I started zipping the backpack back up. But, the ghost jumped out of the backpack and I started running down the hallway and the ghost started running after me.

So what I did was run around the building trying to see if a door was unlock. And there was a door unlock. But, I did not know how class it was so I stayed in the classroom. And there was a teacher walk in the classroom and she said how did you get in my classroom. And I said "The door was unlock and a ghost was chasing me so

I ran to every door and this Classroom was unlock." And the teacher said well how do you know it was a Ghost. But I did not answer the teacher. She ask me how did you get here so early and I said my mom thought it was 8:00 a.m. and she made me get here at 6:30 a.m. this morning. And I laided in here and I went back to slept. And I said I was scared but I just laided still as can be so nothing could get me while I was in this classroom. And the teacher said well you need to go to your Classroom because your teacher is here. And I said how do you know. And the teacher said because I met your teacher coming in the school building. And I said well I'm going to my class to set down and study my homework. And the teacher said Ok but don't be telling around in your classroom. And I said yes teacher. And then I said Bye.

Score Point: 4

This response reflects proficiency in narrative writing. There is adequate development, and the response is organized sequentially. The writer loses focus toward the end of the response and never mentions the backpack or the ghost again. The writing is somewhat choppy and repetitive due to the lack of syntactic variety and the over-coordination of sentences. Although there are a few usage errors, the writer handles spelling skillfully.
